

Founding Faith Conference
September 20-21, 2013

Many claim that the Constitution is outdated and is unable to deal with today's issues. Such a claim reflects a complete misunderstanding of the intent and functionality of the document.

We defend the Constitution because freedom still works, and there is no other document that protects freedom the way that it does. Indeed, the Constitution is far from being the problem. It is the answer!

Don't miss this conference on Saturday, September 21st! In addition, a special VIP dinner will be hosted on Friday, September 20th, and is available in limited quantities.

This one-day conference will drastically change your understanding of the central document to our nation's foundation.

Grassroots America's friends at TEAParty911.com are co-sponsoring the Founding Faith Conference 2013 featuring Lt. General "Jerry" Boykin, Lt. Colonel "Bill" Cowan, and a host of noted conservative speakers. The event is scheduled for Friday, September 20th in Irving and Saturday, September 21 in Arlington.
